

ANOTHER LITTLE CARD!

THE STUPENDOUS AUCTION SALE OF
Inside City Lots and Five-Acre Tracts of Fruit Lands, which has stirred up so much billingsgate among neighboring real estate venders is a

BONA FIDE AUCTION SALE OF 1,400 BUILDING LOTS AND 100 FIVE-ACRE TRACTS

IN THE FAMOUS FRUIT BELT IN AND AROUND LUDINGTON, MICH.

The character or ability of the agents in conducting the movement is of less concern to the public than the unprecedented opportunity for profitable investment. If Ludington has been unfortunate, as Steele & Sons say, in the selection of advertising agents, she makes it all back in natural advantages over Mr. Steele's suburb or any point on the east shore of Lake Michigan.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE JULY 14

You can go elsewhere and buy boomers' sand lots at a fixed figure, or come to Ludington and bid on the finest of inside lots or acre tracts at a GREATER SALE THAN WAS EVER BEFORE ATTEMPTED IN MICHIGAN. You all know Ludington's situation, surroundings and advantages. The big "ratty" advertisements and illustrations have been replete with the facts for weeks.

GREAT RACES at LUDINGTON | The GREAT SALE and BARBECUE

JULY 12, 13, 14, 15. | JULY 14.

Ludington now has four new factories under way at Manufacturers' Addition. A new $50,000 hotel will be commenced this month. The new electric street railroad is assured. The Pere Marquette & Big Rapids Railroad is guaranteed, and right around the city is the FRUIT BELT OF THE WORLD.

One and one-third rates to Ludington on the G. R. & I. and C. & W. M. morning trains July 14.

This is Ludington first lot sale and it will afford some good ground floor investments. It is a SALE MADE BY THE CITIZENS TO PROMOTE INDUSTRIAL IMPROVEMENTS.

COL. GEO. H. CLARK OF CHICAGO, AUCTIONEER.
